

Funds in Court

Children under 18

Your child may have had an accident.

The court may give your child money.

This will help them.

The Senior Master will consider buying a house with your child's money.

You may be able to:

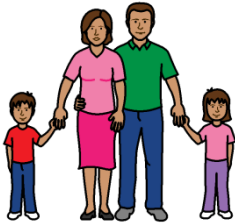

- build a house
- or
- do work to your house
- with your child's money.

The house must be good for your child's needs.

For example, your child may need a

- hoist to get into the bath
- large door way for a wheelchair
- hand rail in the toilet.

Your family can live in the house.

For example, your

- wife
- husband
- other children.

Your family must help look after your house.

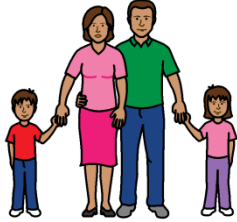

For example,

- look after the garden
- buy furniture
- pay for painting.

- You

and

- your family

and

- the Senior Master

must agree who will do these jobs.
